

SHUSH!

The Newsletter of the
Douglas Library of Hebron

Our favorite Children's Librarian, Cheri Wood has celebrated her 25th anniversary working for the Douglas Library in September. Congratulations, Cheri! Thanks for your hard work and dedication. You've instilled a love of reading in a generation of Hebronians.

Adult/Teen Take & Make Craft:

Leaf bowl

Spruce up your fall decorations with a handmade leaf bowl to display small pumpkins, acorns, Halloween candy, or anything your heart desires. Pick up a craft kit from the hold shelf across from the Adult Circulation Desk while supplies last.

Event Spotlight:

Get to Know Your Car

Thursday, October 13, 6-8PM

October is National Car Care Month and so the library is offering "Get to Know Your Car," a two-hour class with Neal Kwort, a NAPA Autotech Instructor and an ASE Certified L1 Master Technician. Kwort will teach attendees how automotive centers operate and what the right questions are to ask when purchasing a car. He will also give an overview of how cars function, beginning at the radiator and finishing with the tail pipe. For more information about Kwort, visit www.NealsWheels.com. Register for the program at douglaslibrary.org.

Haunted Library and more great YA events

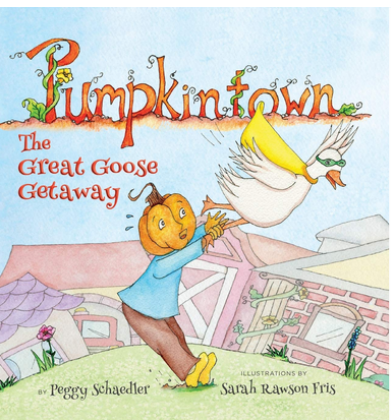

Join us at any of these programs. No registration necessary. Unless otherwise noted, all events run on Tuesdays from 2:30-3:30PM in the Community Room on the first floor of the library.

October 4, 11, and 18 - Help us prepare for the Haunted Library on October 22nd by attending a Haunted Library Meeting. This is where all the ideas for the event start! Participants get community service hours for attending these meetings and working at the Haunted Library.

October 22 - Join us on the Saturday of the Harvest Moon Festival to perform or lead guests through the Haunted Library. The event runs from 4-6PM, but we will need volunteers to help with set-up starting in the early afternoon. This event was a ton of fun last year!

October 25 - Back by popular demand: Pumpkin Painting. Decorate a pumpkin, eat snacks and watch a scary movie at the last YA event before Halloween.

Author Visit:
Peggy Schaedler
 Saturday, October 22, 1:30-2:30PM

Peggy Schaedler, author of the Pumpkintown series of children's books will be visiting the Douglas Library to read, sing, and play ukulele for us. This event will be held in the program room on the Children's Floor. Please be aware that this takes place during the Harvest Moon Festival and parking may be more limited than usual.

Spirited Book Club
A Fall of Marigolds
 Wednesday, October 19, 7-8:30PM

This month's "Spirited Book Club" discussion takes place on Wednesday, October 19th from 7-8:30PM at the American Legion, located next door to the library. This month the club will discuss "A Fall of Marigolds" by Susan Meissner. Copies of the book are available for checkout at the Adult Circulation Desk. Must be over 21 years of age to participate.

Friday Movies Line-up

Halloween Treasures at the Friends Boutique

Spooky Season is here and the Friends' Boutique is ready. Stop by and browse the wide range of Halloween-themed gift items, books for kids and adults, and a variety of home decor.

Thank you to all who supported the Douglas Library through their purchases at the most recent book sale. The next one will be held on November 19th from 9AM-3PM. Volunteers will be needed to help sort donated books, set up beforehand, and tidy up after the upcoming book sale. Contact the Friends if interested in joining/supporting at 860-9312 x312

Chess Club looking for players

The Chess Club is looking for players of all skill levels to drop in and join them during their open sessions. This is a very welcoming club that is loves to play and share knowledge about the game. The group officially meets on the first Thursday of each month at 4:30PM, but they can frequently be found on the main floor of the library on any given Thursday afternoon playing a few matches.
