3D Printer/MakerSpace Waiver and Agreement of Use

Read the following information very carefully and be sure that you understand it fully before signing. This form must be completed before participating in the use of the 3D printers or other MakerSpace activities.

(A makerspace is a community center that provides technology, manufacturing equipment and educational opportunities to the public.)

Participants Agree:

- Safety is the top priority and the facilities, tools and materials must be used in a safe and appropriate manner
- If a tool requires training, it may not be used until training has been provided by library staff
- To comply with the Patron Behavior Policy which states: “disruptive, destructive, dangerous, or illegal behavior will not be tolerated,” items that fit the definition of weapon as deemed by library staff cannot be created
- Children under the age of 18 must be accompanied by and supervised by an adult (unless otherwise specified by the program coordinator)
- When available, usage will be on a first-come, first-serve basis.
- 3D printers have an 8 hour limit on prints
- All prints must be approved by a librarian before sending to printers

I _____ (participant) have read and understand the Douglas Library of Hebron 3D Printing regulations listed above and am fully aware that participating in Makerspace activities including use of the 3D printer may result in risk of personal injury or harm.

I hereby release and hold harmless the Douglas Library of Hebron, its directors, officers, employees, volunteers, committees and boards, from and against all liability, and I and any parent or guardian signing for me below hereby agree to indemnify them against any loss, damages, claims, costs (including attorneys’ fees) or actions of any type, resulting from bodily injury, property damage, or any other loss that may result from my participation in any Makerspace activity or program, including use of the 3D printer to the extent permitted by law.

I have read and understand this release, indemnification, and hold harmless form. I voluntarily sign it and hereby give my permission to the Douglas Library of Hebron for emergency transportation or treatment in the event of illness or injury. I hereby accept responsibility for payment of any emergency transportation or treatment. I further certify I have no medical or physical conditions that would restrict my participation in this activity or program.

FOR MINORS (under 18): ‘I, on behalf of myself and the minor child identified above, hereby covenant not to sue Douglas Library of Hebron, the Town of Hebron, their officers, employees, volunteers, committees and boards, regardless of whether the release, hold harmless and indemnification provisions set forth above are enforceable under Connecticut law.’
